Customer Reviews

How cute is this series? I love it. My son is 13 months and we read these together all the time. I especially loved the Les Mis. Book because instead of just one word descriptions like some of the baby pit books, it gives an English sentence and a French sentence side by side making it easy to learn.

This is my favorite BabyLit book so far! We have a couple of others that are basically picture books with two word descriptions (pink flamingo, five sisters). I wish those had more of a story line. This one actually has phrases, first in English, then in French ("The priest walks in his garden") that have to do with the novel.

Another darling BabyLit book! These are my all time favorite books for little ones, I have gifted hundreds at baby showers over the years and they are always a hit! Les Miserables is no exception, such a lovely way to introduce my little ones to the novel and give them a touch of French too. The concept is brilliant, the illustrations are lovely, I love the newest addition to the BabyLit collection!

A lovely book. I gave it to my next door neighbor on her second birthday, along with Babylit Anna Karenina and Sense and Sensibility. Both mother and daughter loved the books. Les Miserables is a primer for French words; it makes reference to the characters, but do not expect the plot.

My kids love BabyLit and this one didn't disappoint! Love the idea of a language primer...please do more!

It met my expectations. I love this series. Illustrations are delightful!
