Customer Reviews

This book is a really great overview of the Zodiac killer case. I knew who the Zodiac killer was before reading this, but I didn't know WHO he was. Haugen not only gives the details of the attacks, but also photos of the victims and of the actual letters and ciphers sent to the newspapers, statements from detectives, and other fun facts. It's a great book, whether you're doing research or you're just interested in the case.

Much less reading than expected -- fewer pages and larger print.
