You must read this book. Dennis spoke at a dinner that I attended a few years back - before this book was written. His daughter had recently married, and Dennis played a video clip from the ceremony. The clip focused on the tributes that the bride and groom gave to their parents. His daughter spoke of the deep love and respect that she had for her parents. And she went on to thank her dad for all of the father-daughter dates, and for loving her enough to INTERVIEW all of her dates. There was not a dry eye in the room. This book has been waiting to be written. I also recommend Passport 2 Purity by Dennis and Barbara Rainey.

This book helped me realize the most important job I have as a Dad of two daughters. I've often wondered what I would do when my daughter was ready to date - and now I know. His interviewing techniques are simple and easy for any Dad to do. I've used this once and the "interview" went so well for both me and the young man that I plan to use it everytime. One important thing you need to know is, you need to have a discussion with your daughter before hand. She needs to regard you as her protector.

I wish this book had been around when my 2 daughters began dating. Unfortunately, it wasn't but now that it is available I bought so I could give it to my daughter who now has 2 beautiful daughters of her own. It will be helpful to her and her husband in dealing with the dating issue when it arrives. Dennis Rainey and his wife Barbara have both written books that are very helpful with lifes issues. I bought this for my husband...we regularly listen to Dennis Rainey's radio show. It was a good read and we will probably read it again a few times over the next few years...Our daughter is only 3yrs old but we want to be prepared!

Loved the book. It has great examples and advice. Makes you think what you should be doing to protect your daughter(s).

Fantastic! I have two, young teenage daughters. I have used this method with three boyfriends so far; two would not live up to it and quickly lost interest. One of the hardest conversations I've ever had; but does get easier. Fathers, you are the only one that understands what your daughters' boyfriends are going through. Your wife does not. Be the man God needs you to be. Easy quick read; well written and to the point.

We are a long way off from dating, but it was great to learn new ways to approach things before they start. My husband was really impressed as well. We have passed this book to several friends as well.

Short and to the point, Dennis lays out the importance of our role as fathers in the dating process of our teen daughters. I wished he had included some scriptural references for a daughter's preciousness and value.
