Customer Reviews

HANNAH went wild during her Rumspringa and had a baby girl and left her in the Miller's barn. She waited at the market to get a look at baby Roseanne but Sylvia saw Rosie wonder off toward a young girl and she picked her up, she panicked and went to Mark and they hurriedly left. There was something about the young girl that upset Sylvia and she kept it from Mark. Soon her fears were realized one morning Rose was missing from her crib. If you read the first book about baby Rose and the Miller's you will definitely want to read this one too.

These were two very good books. I thoroughly enjoy Sarah Miller books. I have several of her books and all are good. Great series to add to your library

I was very intrigued by the book's title. I don't know if I could deal with a lost child. This story proved to have more than one kind of lost girl.
