The Best Is Yet To Come: A Christian Romance Story

Synopsis

After being delivered from a lifestyle of wild sex, partying, and everything under the sun, twenty-eight year old Shanita Thompson is a woman after God's own heart. When her faith and strong belief in the Lord causes her to make some questionable decisions, she loses not only her career and her financial stability but she also loses her longtime boyfriend. In other words, she loses the man she'd thought loved her. Just when Shanita thinks all is lost, she's offered a great-paying job by the very handsome and successful Justin Perry. Despite fighting it tooth and nail, Justin knows he's attracted to the beautiful, saved, and single Shanita. He knows it from the very beginning. But he's in no position to give his heart away. Plus, with his spirit broken and his faith almost nonexistent, he's sure he'll never get involved with a woman who is saved. Despite their differences and the obstacles in the way, the two soon find themselves in love. But is their love meant to be? Will they end up with their very own happy-ever-after?

Customer Reviews

Shanita is a young woman who is full of faith in God. Her life takes a downward turn when a series of back to back incidents occur that hurt her to the core. Justin is a man dealing with a traumatic event that shook the foundations of his faith. They meet each other through some interesting circumstances, and sooner rather than later, their hearts begin to turn toward one another. The Best is Yet to Come is a great story about the power of love and redemption, and it is a reminder that God has a way of working in the hearts of His children, even those who appear to have forsaken Him. I truly enjoyed this book, and I can't wait to read another one by Nikki Smith. I'm an instant fan!

Nikki Smith has given you a beautiful god-filled love story. Shanita is an intelligent young driven lady who has made a few bad decisions. One of them nearly cost her life. In (The Best is Yet to Come), Shanita decides to give her life to the Lord. By doing this her life changes for the better. If you are looking for a family-oriented love story, this is the one. Free (IBKS)

Nice wholesome read, the characters were interesting, ended a bit quickly. God power was demonstrated through Shanita's trust in God.
