Customer Reviews

What can be more welcome than 10 romances by skilled authors whose goal is to offer exciting stories that both inspire and entertain! The diversity of characters, settings, and plots ensure the titles are not "cookie cutter" romances. Loud cheers for this collection. It promises many hours of pleasurable reading.

Not saying every single story rated five stars, but overall, the collection does. Hours and hours of reading and some of them were absolutely five star worthy. Less mistakes, typos, etc., total in all of them than I find in many individual books. I read more Christian historical romances than contemporary, but enjoyed these nonetheless. Although there was some romance throughout, the storylines offered were varied and definitely not run of the mill. Although there were a few "not nice" or somewhat crude words in some stories, the language was not really offensive even in those. I recommend readers give this collection a try.

This is a set of 10 Christian romance fiction, each by a different author. I will say that some of the ten were lengthy enough that for a dollar, you definitely get a lot of reading time. Without trying to break it down author by author, most of these were entertaining and well written. Two of them, the second book and book number nine would have been more appropriate for a teenager. Given the low price, it was worth the money.

This is a great collection of books. Every one was very different with interesting story lines. I really loved each of them. They all had a special build up and just when I thought I had the story sorted there would be a new twist. I would recommend this collection as good clean reading that will hold your interest.

I enjoyed these so much I bought both sets of books. I read light books at night before to unwind before going to sleep. I was sorry when these books ended. B. Ward

Each book is a unique stand-alone book. No two are alike, and each one kept you reading to the end.

Some stories are better than others. Gail Gaymor Martin is a great author. I did not care for the mysteries in this collection. However, the price was right!

A great collection of Christian romances. I will definitely be checking out other books by these authors. A lot of good bible references throughout.
